Protect your investment with confidence

To ensure long-term reliability and reduce the risk of unexpected repair costs, extended protection is key. Extended Warranty lets you prolong your factory coverage for up to three years, giving you priority access to certified Edwards service technicians whenever support is needed.

How can you maintain reliable performance and maximise productivity?

To achieve reliable performance and maximise productivity, every component counts. That's why Edwards recommends routine maintenance using genuine spare parts and oil, specifically engineered for perfect compatibility and rigorously tested for long-term quality.

How can you secure your investment in new vacuum technology most effectively?

To protect your new investment from unforeseen repair costs, you can extend the factory warranty for up to three years, when you commit to using genuine Edwards oil and spare parts throughout the coverage period.
